

I would like to thank the FAA for changing the way that incidents with animals on airlines are to be reported and to ask that this rule be finalized as soon as possible. Also, I would like to see the rule extended to protect animals other than family pets, including those going to zoos, laboratories, etc. Thank you so much!